Tips for DC

posted 3 minutes ago by morrowlane +6 / -1

Trump has given us marching orders, and, basically if you're east of the Mississippi you can and should be there. If you aren't, be in your state capital in full force on the same day. I know it's basically red states between the Mississippi and the rockys, but there's enough democrats in every state that need to know we mean business.

I've said, and said again, go to DC, numbers matter. This is the Winter of Our Discontent.

EARLY: Keep your guns hidden (outside DC proper), walk into DC (good boots a must), bring your plate carrier, your flag, radio and charging kits (NO PHONES), your trauma kits (3 tourniquets, quick clot, packing), gas mask and extra filter (you need to be clean shaven), water (3L minimum per person) and food (2 MREs of equivalent per person). How many people can a dead patriot save? none.

Link up early in the day (6-12 man teams), have several rally points forwards and rear (PHYSICAL MAPS), have a multi-band radio (and know how to use it), print out and laminate a sheet of frequencies to have on your person.

LATE : If/When it's time to arm up. Fall back to perimeter, kit up, slow roll back into town. By 3am, we'll have a good read on the situation. Don't fuck around, full kits, 180 rounds minimum for main rifle, another 50 for sidearm, per person. You're going to be tired. Sit, eat, get hydrated. Know how to identify friend from foe (IFF). You should be on comms with your 6-12 man team (recommend earpieces minimum).

Whatever happens from that point forward, you are it. Have your repair kits, batteries, flashlights, med kits, all fully stocked. They're going to lock you in and there will be no going back for more. What you have is what you're going to have for the next 36-48 hours.
